Consent to Retain in toddler classroom

Consent to advance to preschool classroom

As per, Regulations:

418-1.8(k)(5)(i) 418-1.8(l)(4)(ii)

(4) Any child who is 18 months or older who may not be developmentally ready to advance to the next age group setting may be retained for a period of up to three months.

(i) A written agreement concerning this retention between the parent and the center is required.

(ii) If this time period is expected to exceed three months, the center, in consultation with Early Intervention or Special Education staff and the parent, may exercise greater discretion in the placement of the child with a developmental disability or delay based on consideration of such factors as the child's developmental readiness, appropriateness of the classroom environment, the level of care the child requires and the needs of the other children in care.

New York State Child Day Care Regulations (effective October 13, 2021) ♦ Part 418-1: Child Day Care Centers

418-1.8(l)(4)(iii) 418-1.8(n)

(iii) A written assessment of the child's need for further retention must be kept on file.

(5) In consideration of a child's developmental readiness, appropriateness of the classroom environment, the level of care the child requires and the needs of the other children in care, the center may move a toddler to the next age group when that child is within three months of their third birthday.

(i) A written assessment of the child's developmental readiness is required to be kept on file.
